Newest Features in EnerNOC's Energy Procurement Platform Help Businesses More Proactively Manage Energy Costs

EnerNOC's Energy Exchange Offers Customers Best-In-Class Solution for Technology-Enabled Energy Sourcing

BOSTON, May 24, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- EnerNOC, Inc. (Nasdaq:ENOC), a leading provider of demand response solutions and energy intelligence software, announced today that the latest feature enhancements in its award-winning energy procurement platform, the EnerNOC Energy Exchange, help customers make more proactive purchasing decisions.

"Savvy energy consumers don't wait for contracts to expire to make their next purchase; instead they proactively monitor market conditions and seize on favorable purchasing opportunities. The latest enhancements to the EnerNOC Energy Exchange make it easier for customers to do that," said Tim Healy, Chairman and CEO, EnerNOC.

The new features include:

- 1 Opportunity Ranking: EnerNOC's opportunity ranking algorithm automatically tracks and prioritizes favorable purchasing opportunities to ensure buyers are positioned to make proactive decisions.
- 1 Manage Exposure to Market: This feature enhancement enables EnerNOC customers to customize triggered alerts when real-time prices are spiking. These automated triggers help customers monitor market fluctuations and the impact these factors have on their energy purchasing strategy and budget.
- 1 Peak/Off-Peak Pricing Triggers: By more discreetly distinguishing between on- and off-peak pricing, new triggers can alert customers to favorable buying opportunities.

"As a publicly traded real estate investment trust, we create value through leasing, repositioning, expansion, redevelopment, as well as ground up development. As such, we strategically purchase and sell assets. The EnerNOC Exchange and advisory team provides us with the insights and information we need to proactively manage our supply activity in this complex business and market environment," Matthew Praske, Energy & Sustainability Manager, Washington Real Estate Investment Trust.
