

ENEL X'S RENEWABLE AND DISTRIBUTED ENERGY SOLUTIONS

Service Offering Specifications Sheet

Enel X's renewable and distributed energy solutions help organizations make the right choices given their specific risk profile, sustainability goals, and planning horizons. Our spectrum of service supports the development, implementation and ongoing management of your commodity and renewable energy strategies. Whether you're looking for support with specific sites, select geographies, or your entire portfolio, you'll receive the benefit of our advisors' retail and wholesale market expertise, as well as our award-winning Energy Exchange. You will find below the services that can be included in a solution tailored to your needs.

Renewable Strategy Development	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Review existing contracts and strategies to develop a renewable portfolio baseline > Provide education and overview of options, markets, and products in line with your renewable energy and social governance/ sustainability goals > Right size purchases to coordinate with existing portfolio
Renewable Strategy Implementation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Solicit bids or offers from suppliers through development of an RFP or other method as appropriate > Conduct risk assessment (as applicable): including, but not limited to permitting, grid interconnection, vendor performance, credit, curtailment, and basis analyses > Analyze economics of Renewable Energy Certificate (REC) purchases and on-site generation, including forward curve development
Ongoing Support	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Ongoing strategy review and revision as needed > Assistance with ISO/RTO and state regulatory processes > Coordinate Power Purchase Agreement (PPA) delivery (physical) and implement into energy supply management program (financial and physical) > Budget and invoice analysis > Validation of monthly settlements (physical and financial) > Tracking and reporting of renewable energy savings/benefits performance